

Incentive travel

Are you looking for a way to put into place a first class, cost-effective, incentive travel program that will motivate everyone to become a top performer?

Milestones! gives you the ability to do just that, and more!

We will craft a program for you that encourages your people to achieve their personal best while meeting and exceeding company expectations.

Not sure how to set quota and do the necessary internal number-crunching? Don't worry – we have some formulae that just might solve that little issue! Next question!

Well, how about where to go? That's the fun part. First stop: Milestones! Based on your input about which destinations appeal to you – at home or abroad - we give you choices that fit your criteria. You choose! It's that simple!

$$$ Budget concerns? Well, that's not so much fun, it's true but it's not insurmountable. Let us show you how to make the most of your money, how to invest in the all-important "WOW" factor and still come in on budget.

Meeting planning, site selection & contract negotiation

Whether you need help locating a hotel for a meeting or a venue for an event, Milestones! is here to help.

Site selection and contract negotiation services can often be offered on a complimentary basis. Our negotiation expertise alone will save you money and increase your concessions.

We can plan all or part of a meeting and be on-site to manage if you like – the choice is yours. We take the worry out of your work so you can just, well relax!

You can mix and match to suit your meeting needs and budget requirements. Think of us as the missing piece to your meeting puzzle!

MORE ON MILESTONES!

We have over fifteen years of experience in the international and domestic incentive travel and meeting industry, combined with twenty plus years of sales, marketing and business management.

We specialize in supporting the aims and goals of the organic and natural products industries.

We provide our clients with exceptional personal service and innovative, customized, cost-effective travel, meeting and recognition programs.

We strive always to support the environments we choose to visit with our groups. A portion of our profits is ear-marked for charitable causes.

Through our sister company, TeamsVolunteer, we give back to local communities through unique, innovative team-building partnerships with non-profit and fair trade organizations.

We are happy to share our industry knowledge with local service providers. This helps them enhance their skills to larger markets.

Where our clients require gifts for their incentive travel attendees, meeting participants or employees, we look for fair trade products and those made by recipients of micro-loans.

We enjoy what we do! Synergy is one of our favorite words! We appreciate partnering with clients to achieve results that are so much more than the sum of the parts.

Why not make your next program a Milestone? We look forward to partnering with you!
